

Mephibosheth: A Covenant Story

Daniel Hammons / Saturday, November 15, 2025

Covenant; Blood of Christ / 2 Samuel 9:1–13; Matthew 11:25–30

Introduction

2 Samuel 4:4

Search for the Lost

2 Samuel 9:1–5

Luke 19:9–10

Luke 15:1–7

Matthew 11:25–30

Approach with Fear

2 Samuel 9:6–8

Deuteronomy 6:13–17

Joshua 24:14

Psalms 111:7–10

Ecclesiastes 12:13

Luke 12:4–7

2 Corinthians 6:16–7:1

The Unbreakable Bond

2 Samuel 9:9–13

1 Samuel 18:3–4

1 Samuel 20:12–17

God's Covenant Love

Hebrews 9:13–28

Matthew 26:26–28

1 John 2:1–6

Conclusion

Twelve Unlikely Heroes: How God Commissioned Unexpected People in the Bible and What He Wants to Do with You 5. Jonathan: The Man Who Would (Not) Be King (John MacArthur Jr.)

John 10:27–30

Hebrews 13:20–21

In what way does David seek to honor his covenant with Jonathan?

How does Mephibosheth respond to David when he is brought before him?

What is the significance of the covenant that David made with Jonathan for Mephibosheth?

How can we relate to feeling 'broken' like Mephibosheth in our own lives?

What does David's kindness to Mephibosheth teach us about God's love toward us?

Why is it important to approach God with reverence and fear?

In what ways might we seek to demonstrate loyal love to others, similar to David?

How can the story of Mephibosheth encourage us to seek and restore relationships that may feel broken?

What are some practical ways we can share the grace we have received with others?

In what situations might we need to remind ourselves of the unbroken bond we have with God?

How can we support each other in experiencing the rest that Jesus promises?

What did Jesus mean when He said He came to seek and save the lost?

How can we ensure that we keep God's commandments as a reflection of our relationship with Him?