Prayer updates

On Monday, Angela Dunnam experienced a rough day. She went to a doctor appointment on Monday. On Tuesday, she reported: “I didn’t listen to my family and insisted on being by myself because it was to be a minor procedure.” As it turned out, the day was stressful. The procedure was to insert a device near her cancer. She described it this way: “When I went to get dressed, blood started spurting everywhere. The doctor had hit a vein when he was inserting the reflector. Nurses and doctors came in and worked on me for an hour to stop the bleeding. The staff found clothes for me to wear home. After the treatment, I went to my car and locked the doors as soon as I got inside. A huge man tried to get in my car. I was on the phone with [son] Jake, and he helped me through the ordeal." Mrs. Dunnam was scheduled for a "lumpectomy/lymph node removal" this morning. The family appreciates all the prayers and support.

Gary Wilson appreciates your ongoing prayers for his rehabilitation and for his older sister (Patricia Wilson, who is autistic) adjusting to her move to Tyler.

As you know, Lisa Smith has been very busy helping Gary Wilson move to a rehab facility in Tyler. Her next project was helping Mr. Wilson's older sister, Patricia Wilson (who is autistic), move to a place in Tyler (to be close to her brother). Last Saturday, the workload of Mrs. Smith finally caught up with her. She wisely went to an ER, where she learned that her blood pressure had spiked to 148/101.

Although Martha McIver is doing a little better with her pneumonia, she still has a cough and is feeling exhausted.

Dave McLearn reports that his knee is feeling a little better.

On Tuesday, Dixon Cartwright visited three therapists for outpatient rehab after his stroke on Feb. 18.

Following are excerpts from a report about Elaine Holloway given by daughter Cheryl Cain: "They are going to put Mom on hospice care for a 60-day evaluation period. She has been refusing food and the medication she needs to continue combating the pneumonia. If her decline stops, she will go back to regular care."

New prayer requests

Last Wednesday (April 5), Ruth Roe was experiencing some back pain. The pain relocated to her right leg and then relocated to her left leg. On Tuesday, she reported that she had a rough night on Monday night and throughout Tuesday.

Thought for the week

"I have a strange pet peeve when I hear someone say, 'Trust the science' or 'I believe in the science.' Because that's not how science works. It doesn't ask for trust or belief. The foundation of science is built on 'applying rigorous skepticism about what is observed, given that cognitive assumptions can distort how one interprets the observation.'"—Kevin Stock

Thought with a twist

"A girl said she recognized me from her vegetarian club, but I'd never met herbivore."

Scriptures for the season

Exodus 14:10-12—“And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them. So they were very afraid, and the children of Israel cried out to the Lord. Then they said to Moses, ‘Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you so dealt with us, to bring us up out of Egypt? Is this not the word that we told you in Egypt, saying, ‘Let us alone that we may serve the Egyptians?’ For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than that we should die in the wilderness.’”

Exodus 14:13-14—“And Moses said to the people, ‘Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will accomplish for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall see again no more forever. The LORD will fight for you, and you shall hold your peace.’”

Exodus 14:19-23—“And the Angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud went from before them and stood behind them. So it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel. Thus it was a cloud and darkness to the one, and it gave light by night to the other, so that the one did not come near the other all that night. Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea into dry land, and the waters were divided. So the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea on the dry ground, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. And the Egyptians pursued and went after them into the midst of the sea, all Pharaoh’s horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.”

Exodus 14:24-28—“Now it came to pass, in the morning watch, that the LORD looked down upon the army of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and cloud, and He troubled the army of the Egyptians. And He took off their chariot wheels, so that they drove them with difficulty; and the Egyptians said, ‘Let us flee from the face of Israel, for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians.’ Then the LORD said to Moses, ‘Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the waters may come back upon the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen.’ And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and when the morning appeared, the sea returned to its full depth, while the Egyptians were fleeing into it. So the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. Then the waters returned and covered the chariots, the horsemen, and all the army of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them. Not so much as one of them remained.”

Exodus 19:5-6—“Now therefore, if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to Me above all people; for all the earth is Mine. And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.” These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel.”

Exodus 20:2—“I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.”

Matthew 19:16-19—“Now behold, one came and said to Him, ‘Good Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?’ So He said to him, ‘Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments.’ He said to Him, ‘Which ones?’ Jesus said, ‘You shall not murder,’ ‘You shall not commit adultery,’ ‘You shall not steal,’ ‘You shall not bear false witness,’ ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ ”

Matthew 22:35-40—“Then one of them, a lawyer, asked Him a question, testing Him, and saying, ‘Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?’ Jesus said to him, ‘You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.’ ”

John 5:45-47—“Do not think that I shall accuse you to the Father; there is one who accuses you—Moses, in whom you trust. For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me; for he wrote about Me. But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?”

Acts 7:36—“He [Moses] brought them out, after he had shown wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years.”

1 Corinthians 10:1-4—“Moreover, brethren, I do not want you to be unaware that all our fathers were under the cloud, all passed through the sea, all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ.”

1 Corinthians 10:5-11—“But with most of them God was not well pleased, for their bodies were scattered in the wilderness. Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted. And do not become idolaters as were some of them. As it is written, ‘The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.’ Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell; nor let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by serpents; nor complain, as some of them also complained, and were destroyed by the destroyer. Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.”

Hebrews 11:24-26—“By faith Moses, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter, choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin, esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt; for he looked to the reward.”

Hebrews 11:27-28—“By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured as seeing Him who is invisible. By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest he who destroyed the firstborn should touch them..”

Hebrews 11:29—“By faith they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land, whereas the Egyptians, attempting to do so, were drowned.”
