Luke 21:34-36—“But take heed to yourselves, lest your souls be weighed down with self-indulgence, and drunkenness, or the anxieties of this life, and that day come on you suddenly, like a falling trap; for it will come on all dwellers on the face of the whole earth. But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take your stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Allen West titled "The Left's Moral, Constitutional and Judicial Relativism" was posted at townhall.com on June 13, 2022. Following is the article.

There is a Chinese curse that says, "May you live in interesting times." We are certainly there. We are at a time when the blatant hypocrisy before us would be laughable if not so doggone serious.

What ails America today is the complete and abject relativism of the progressive socialist left when it comes to moral, constitutional, and judicial matters . . . truth.

- Truth is not situational or subjective, but that is what the left wishes us to believe.
- Truth to them is rooted in their ideological agenda, all else be damned.
- It is the greatest evidence of Machiavellian thought; their ends will always justify their means. And their ends shall be attained by any means necessary.

Let's start with the hilarious grand production called the January 6 hearings. Am I the only one who feels that it is dangerous that we now have a DC Bastille?

Yes, when did we get to the point where Americans can be held, detained, for months, years, with no formal charges, and no trial? I find it quite perplexing that all of a sudden, the FBI can scour the country and find folks who were in DC that day . . . yet, they cannot find a single member of Antifa?

The left can demonize regular Americans yet even the Vice President, Kamala Harris, worked to raise bail funds to have violent protestors released from jail.

And why do we not have hearings on these domestic terrorist groups like Antifa who go about, masked, clad in black, destroying government buildings and assaulting police? Yes, a laser into the eyes of a person is an assault. Hmm, no banning of that weapon.

Where was the leftist outrage when Maxine Waters and Chuck Schumer issued threats against members of the Trump administration and also Supreme Court justices?

Chuck Schumer should be investigated for stating that Justices Gorsuch and Kavanaugh would "reap the whirlwind and not know what hit them."

Well, last week, someone was arrested and admitted his intent to assassinate Justice Kavanaugh and we heard nothing from the left.

They were also silent when an avowed Bernie Sanders supporter and patron of MSNBC decided to assassinate members of the Congressional Republican baseball team.

Does anyone believe that if constitutional conservatives were marching outside the homes of leftist justices they would not be immediately thrown in jail?

This is the playbook of progressives, socialists, leftists, Marxists, and communists—coercion, threats, intimidation, and ultimately violence. It is the rise of the mob and the creation of a mobocracy and a two-tiered justice system that works against regular Americans.

The progressive socialist left's agenda is to disarm legal, law abiding, responsible Americans and leave us powerless to defend ourselves and our families against the criminals they enable. We have a right to keep and bear arms, and it is a right that "shall not be infringed."

Just last week I was astonished at the imbecilic comment from Joy Behar (yes, I know, that is a regular for her) stating that when Blacks get guns in America, gun laws will change.

- The two fastest growing demographics for gun ownership in America are women and Blacks.
- And Blacks are arming themselves due to the lack of safety and security in their communities, per leftist policies of criminal catch and release.
- Matter of fact, it was a Black man from Chicago, Otis McDonald, who took his case to the Supreme Court, McDonald v City of Chicago, and won the decision of application of the Second Amendment to states and municipalities.
- It was also the National Rifle Association that gave firearms training to Black civil rights organizations in the south as the Democrat Party was once again unleashing the KKK against Blacks.
- As well, it was Democrats who denied Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. his application for a license to carry, a clear violation of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution, something the Democrat Party did not support.

The justice system has been weaponized against political opponents of the Left. Hillary Clinton's lawyer can indeed lie to the FBI, but no worries, just get a partisan DC jury and all will be well. But, if you are Roger Stone, LTG Michael Flynn, and Peter Navarro, the left will use their powers to unlawfully detain you and destroy you.

The corrupted justice system is instrumental in the left's resetting of our values. The system now protects those who would take advantage of vulnerable children. In Dallas, there was recently a "drag your kids to pride" event held at a gay bar. The left encourages "grooming" children for illicit purposes. Where was child protective services in this case? Try and have a school field trip to a place of Judeo-Christian faith heritage significance, and watch leftists go apoplectic.

Morals, our Constitution, and our system of justice are not relative to any political ideology, they are concrete truths and foundations in a free society, especially this Constitutional Republic. If we continue to allow the jackhammering of our foundation by the deranged and demented leftists in America, we will fall. I am committed to never allowing that to happen . . . are you?

This is your call to action, be better informed, educated, and activated. Join us at the American Constitutional Rights Union, and for God's sake, take a stand.

Steadfast and Loyal.

An article by Dennis Prager titled "Feminism Has Weakened Women" was posted at townhall.com on June 14, 2022. Following is the article.

Here's a joke:

"Every girl is bi. You just have to figure out if it's polar or sexual."

This joke was retweeted last week by Dave Weigel, a Washington Post reporter. He retweeted it because he thought it was funny.

He thought it was funny because it is.

But, of course, unless a joke is at the expense of straight, white males, such humor is banned by the Left.

A real brouhaha at the newspaper started when a colleague of Weigel's, Felicia Sonmez, complained that the tweet was misogynistic. On The Washington Post's internal website, she wrote that Weigel's retweet sent "a confusing message about what the Post's values are."

The Post's chief spokesperson, Kris Coratti, then issued a statement condemning Weigel: "Editors have made clear to the staff that the tweet was reprehensible and demeaning language or actions like that will not be tolerated."

The newspaper's national editor, Matea Gold, wrote, "I just want to assure all of you that The Post is committed to maintaining a respectful workplace for everyone. We do not tolerate demeaning language or actions."

The Post's executive editor, Sally Buzbee, added: "The Washington Post is committed to an inclusive and respectful environment free of harassment, discrimination or bias of any sort."

Post video technician Breanna Muir supported Sonmez for "speaking out against harassment, discrimination and sexism . . . These tweets/rts not only hurt women in our newsroom but make it extremely difficult to do our best work. Ultimately, it creates a toxic work environment."

Another Post reporter, Jose A. Del Real, tweeted that Weigel's retweet was "terrible and unacceptable." However, Del Real added that because Weigel apologized—Weigel had immediately tweeted, "I just removed a retweet of an offensive joke. I apologize and did not mean to cause any harm"—Sonmez and others should stop attacking him. As a result, Del Real was attacked—so much so that he temporarily deactivated his Twitter account. When he reactivated it, he posted a statement saying he had faced "an unrelenting series of attacks intended to tarnish my professional and personal reputation." He also accused Sonmez of "repeated and targeted public harassment of a colleague (Weigel)."

Apparently, additional Post employees began criticizing one another over the issue, and according to CNN, "By Monday morning, tension at The Post was still high." Another left-wing site, the Daily Beast, put it this way: "a multi-front war within WaPo is raging."

Sonmez, who had previously sued the Washington Post for sexism—a suit she lost—has been let go by the paper. (The Post had suspended Weigel for a month without pay.)

In addition to providing the nation with another example of the Left's meanness, hypersensitivity and war on humor (unless directed at white males), this episode also reveals something important about feminism.

In the true Orwellian spirit of the Left, the overriding claim of feminists that feminism empowers women is the opposite of the truth. Over the past half-century, modern feminism has not strengthened women, but weakened them.

It is worthy to note that, except for Del Real, who called for civility and compassion toward Weigel, every Washington Post actor named in this story—Felicia Sonmez, Matea Gold, Kris Coratti, Breanna Muir—is a woman.

That's why they were horrified by the joke. Few men—despite the fact that feminist activism has also rendered a great many American men weak—would find a similar joke about men offensive. Most men would find it funny.

For the record, every man I know is married to a strong woman. The notion that men are not attracted to (or are threatened or intimidated by) strong women is a feminist myth. While undoubtedly some men seek weak women, most men find weakness in women (as in men) unappealing.

In feminist Newspeak (Orwell's term for the totalitarian redefining of language), when applied to women, "strong" means "easily offended," and "perceiving oneself as a victim."

Tragically, many women, especially young women, have come to accept those definitions of "strong."

No wonder the depression rates among young American women are the highest ever measured.

Isaiah 55:6-11—“Seek you the LORD while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the LORD, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not you thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
