Quick takes

1. Feast church service on the website—This is to remind people that a daily church service is scheduled to be transmitted on our website from Monday, Oct. 14, through Monday, Oct. 21. The service will originate from our Feast site here in Big Sandy. It will begin at 10:30 a.m. (central time) for the first seven days. On the eighth day, the service will begin at 11:00 a.m. (central time).
2. Interactive study this week—The topic of the interactive Bible study today is scheduled to be “Atonement” moderated by Dave Havir.
3. Edifying the Body—Last week’s article was “Earth Worship and Climate Confessions” by Brent Bozell and Tim Graham.
4. Among Friends—Last weekend’s article was “David—Book of Psalms” by Dave Havir.

Prayer updates

Here are excerpts from an update by a niece of Willie Choate: “I got a call from my uncle’s head nurse. They wanted permission to do another procedure. (I’m sorry I forgot what she called it, but they want to look inside his lungs.) I asked the head nurse if there was any improvement at all. She said that there was not much improvement, but that there were definitely small improvements—which made me very, very happy. I wanted to let you all know this. Thank you so very much. Please don’t stop praying.”

Here are excerpts from an update about Timberly Dunnam by Angela Dunnam: “I just got off the phone with Timberly’s doctor. She has a cyst on her thyroid (which has caused such problems swallowing anything). Doctors are going to check it again in three months. If it gets bigger, then she will be sent to a specialist. Thank you for your prayers.”

On Monday, the cataract surgery on the right eye of David Bonilla went well.

New prayer requests

On Monday, Lisa Smith went for an endoscopy procedure. After the procedure, she reported: “They took a biopsy from my stomach. I am home recuperating. Thank you for the prayers.” On Tuesday, they diagnosed her with having a heart murmur. They have scheduled an echocardiogram in the near future.

George Bishop of Gladewater died on Sept. 14. Please remember the family in your prayers.

Norm Bronnum of Hawkins died on Oct. 4. Please remember the family in your prayers.

Scriptures for the season

Exodus 30:10—“And Aaron shall make atonement upon its horns once a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonement; once a year he shall make atonement upon it throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD.”

Leviticus 16:32-34—“And the priest, who is anointed and consecrated to minister as priest in his father’s place, shall make atonement, and put on the linen clothes, the holy garments; then he shall make atonement for the Holy Sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tabernacle of meeting and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly. This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins, once a year.” And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Hebrews 7:23-28—Also there were many priests, because they were prevented by death from continuing. But He, because He continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood. Therefore He is also able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them. For such a High Priest was fitting for us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and has become higher than the heavens; who does not need daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for His own sins and then for the people’s, for this He did once for all when He offered up Himself. For the law appoints as high priests men who have weakness, but the word of the oath, which came after the law, appoints the Son who has been perfected forever.

Hebrews 9:7—But into the second part the high priest went alone once a year, not without blood, which he offered for himself and for the people’s sins committed in ignorance.

Hebrews 9:24-28—For Christ has not entered the holy places made with hands, which are copies of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; not that He should offer Himself often, as the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood of another—He then would have had to suffer often since the foundation of the world; but now, once at the end of the ages, He has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. And as it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment, so Christ was offered once to bear the sins of many. To those who eagerly wait for Him He will appear a second time, apart from sin, for salvation.

James 4:7-8—Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

1 Peter 5:6-10—Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time, casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced by your brotherhood in the world. But may the God of all grace, who called us to His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you.
