The second concept is that the Son of God was tempted in all points.

Emotion and self-control

The third concept is that the Son of God had emotion and self-control.

- Mark 3:5—The Son of God had anger—without sinning.

A time to answer

The fourth concept is that the Son of God showed that there was a time to answer.

■ Proverbs 26:4-5—“Do not answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him. Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes.”

■ John 8:41, 44—When the religious people accused the Son of God of being born of fornication, He answered by saying that their father was the devil.

A time to keep quiet

The fifth concept is that the Son of God showed that there was a time to keep quiet.

■ Matthew 26:63—When the high priest grilled the Son of God, He initially stayed silent.

■ John 2:14-15—The Son of God overturned tables in the temple.

■ Matthew 21:12-13—The Son of God overturned tables in the temple. (Also mentioned in Mark 11:15-17 and in Luke 19:45-46.)

A time to turn the other cheek

The seventh concept is that the Son of God showed that there was a time to turn the other cheek.

1 Peter 2:19-25—The Son of God set an example of suffering, while He was innocent.

Avoid revenge

The eighth concept is that the disciples should avoid revenge.

Prayer updates

In last week's bulletin, we reported that Gloria Hoppe had had no solid food for more than two weeks due to extreme nausea and vomiting. (We quoted Mrs. Hoppe as saying: "In my 76 years, I've never been this sick.") On Tuesday, she considered going back to the ER. On Wednesday, she reported some improvement, mentioning that creamed corn worked. She appreciates your prayers.

Timberly Dunnam reports that she had two great days last week and a couple of good days this week. She and her family thank everyone for the encouragement, support and lovely cards.

New prayer requests

On Thursday, Benny West found his mother (Shirley West) barely able to breathe and in bad shape. He called an ambulance and went to a hospital in Longview. Stan West left his work in Shreveport to join them. Stan West reported: "The doctor said that Mom was experiencing increased heart failure and that she has a pocket of fluid between her heart and left lung. Draining the fluid would give her relief. Ben and I request no visitors until she has the fluid removal over with and is rested." On Friday, Mr. West reported: "The doctor removed the fluid and said she has the flu—called type B. It is probably not a good idea for people to visit. She will have physical therapy to get her walking again. She will be in the hospital through the weekend—and Ben and I will work on more care for her." The family thanks you for your prayers.

On Monday, Daniel Carter reported that he was recently diagnosed with a detached retina in his right eye.

Last Sunday, Carolyn Easter (mother of Linda Benton) was taken to a hospital with heart symptoms. The hospital staff said that there was no heart attack or stroke. She went home on Monday.

On Thursday, Donna Weese had cataract surgery on her right eye. She is scheduled for cataract surgery on her left eye on Jan. 9.

Sophia Mobley of Tulsa, Okla., is a 7-year-old girl who has been diagnosed with leukemia.

Mark McGarbey of Tulsa, Okla., had foot surgery.

On Monday, Alvin Duchane of Broken Arrow, Okla., had surgery to remove a cancerous tumor.

Vince Ogorek of Elk Grove Village, Ill., requests prayers "for divine healing for personal injuries, a recent fall and vision loss."

Thought for the week

"I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me"—The Apostle Paul

Big cats in East Texas

Angela Dunnam reported recent dealings with animals. She said: "We are having trouble in our neighborhood from big cats. It was confirmed that a mountain lion has killed a dog and last night [Thursday] killed a miniature horse. Also, we have confirmed the sighting of a black panther and also confirmed the sighting of a large bobcat just past our driveway."

"Emotional Bank Account—Part 6"

This article is from the "Among Friends" of the Church of God's Big Sandy's website (churchofgodbigandy.com). It was posted for the weekend of Dec. 28, 2024.

By Dave Havir

BIG SANDY, Texas—At our Bible study on Wednesday night, I finished a series with a presentation titled "Emotional Bank Account—Part 6." Following are the six subtitles of the six presentations.

■ The subtitle for the first presentation was "Father and Son Make Deposits Into Your Emotional Bank Account."

■ The subtitle for the second presentation was "God Made Positive Withdrawals From Christ's Emotional Bank Account."

■ The subtitle for the third presentation was "God Makes Positive Withdrawals From Disciples' Emotional Bank Account."

■ The subtitle for the fourth presentation was "Situations Where Disciples Make Positive Withdrawals From People."

■ The subtitle for the fifth presentation was "Disciples Need to Make Deposits Into the Lives of People."

■ The subtitle for the sixth presentation was "Dealing With the Negative Withdrawals That People Take From Us."

Different withdrawals

Parts 3 and 4 had already talked about withdrawals, but part 6 was different. I described parts 3 and 4 as positive withdrawals, because the purpose and motivation of those withdrawals were to lead to deposits.

However, the withdrawals in part 6 are not motivated by good.

■ These withdrawals may come from carelessness or rudeness.

■ But these withdrawals may also come from something more sinister—meanness or evil.

■ A purpose of this article is to help readers to practice dealing with adversity.

Weekly reminder by Covey

Author Stephen Covey wrote about "the Emotional Bank Account" in his book The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People. Following are excerpts.

On page 188, Covey wrote: "We all know what a financial bank account is. We make deposits into it and build up a reserve from which we can make withdrawals when we need it. An Emotional Bank Account is a metaphor that describes the amount of trust that's been built up in a relationship. It's the feeling of safeness you have with another human being.

"If I make deposits into an Emotional Bank Account with you through courtesy, kindness, honesty, and keeping my commitments to you, I build up a reserve. Your trust toward me becomes higher, and I call upon that trust many times if I need to. I can even make mistakes and that trust level (that emotional reserve) will compensate for it."

Eight main points

In this article, we want to discuss concepts of dealing with the negative withdrawals that people make toward us. I organized the material into eight major points.

Understand judgment and timing

The first concept is to understand judgment and timing. Notice Ecclesiastes 3:1-8.

■ Ecclesiastes 3:1—There is a season for everything, and there is time for every purpose under heaven.
