SAN ANTONIO, Texas—Do you remember what King David of the Bible said to the Philistine giant called Goliath?

1 Samuel 17:45—“You come to me with a sword, with a spear, and with a javelin. But I come to you in the name of the LORD Almighty.”

You know your Goliath.

You recognize his walk, the thunder of his voice.

He taunts you.

- With bills you can’t pay.
- With people you can’t please.
- With habits you can’t break.
- With failures you can’t forget.
- And with a future you can’t face.

But, just like David, you can face your giant—even if you aren’t the strongest, the smartest, the best equipped or the holiest.

You could read David’s story and wonder what God saw in him.

His life has little to offer the unstained, straight-A saint.

He fell as often as he stood, and he stumbled as often as he conquered.

But, for those who know the sound of Goliath, David gives this reminder: “Focus on giants, you stumble; focus on God, your giants tumble.”

If you are ready to face your giants, let his story inspire you. The same God, who helped him, will help you.
