But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take you stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Nikki Schwab titled “[Liberal Lawyer] Alan Dershowitz Claims Obama Would Only Come to His 75th Birthday [in 2013] on Martha’s Vineyard – If He Dis-Invited Geraldo Rivera [Which Dershowitz Did Not Do]” was posted at dailymail.co.uk on July 31, 2023. Following are excerpts of the article.

Lawyer Alan Dershowitz told Charlie Kirk Monday about being shunned for defending former President Donald Trump (after he represented Mr. Trump during his first impeachment).

He told the conservative Kirk that his defense of Trump “cost me a great deal,” arguing that “people have lost all sense of decency when it comes to having different points of view” and characterized those on the left as being especially petty.

Dershowitz explained an event involving his 75th birthday in 2013.

- “President Obama was invited and he said he would come. But then when he heard that Geraldo Rivera was invited too, basically his office said ‘unless you dis-invite Geraldo Rivera, I’m not coming.’”
- “And I’m a loyal guy. I said to the president of the United States: ‘No, Geraldo Rivera is coming.’”
- “I believe in loyalty. I believe in friendships. I don’t agree with Geraldo on everything, but he’s my friend. So of course I invited him to my 75th birthday and I’m inviting him to my 85th birthday.”

The lawyer will turn 85 on September 1.

Like the Obamas, Dershowitz is a regular on Martha’s Vineyard, but talked about how he’s been shunned as of late.

- “My former friends on the radical left, one of them was walking yesterday on the beach and he saw me coming and he took a sharp right turn, went up to the top of the dunes. I thought he’d fall off to avoid even seeing me. And that’s the way it is today.”
- “The library has cancelled me. My synagogue has cancelled me. The community center has cancelled me. [Even] the book show on Martha's Vineyard. I'm probably the best-selling author on Martha's Vineyard and they cancelled me."

- "It's just that they don't want to hear opposing points of view. That's not liberals. It's called progressive, but it's regressive."

At another point in the show, Dershowitz told Kirk he still thinks himself a liberal. He noted how he supports gay rights, abortion, gun control and environmental protection (within reason).

But he still believed Trump was getting a raw deal.

Dershowitz pushed that all of the legal proceedings against the former president should be paused until after the 2024 presidential election.

- "There ought not to be a trial that takes place during the election. That really does constitute (whether it's deliberate or not) election interference."

Isaiah 55:6-11—"Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. 'For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,' says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it."
