But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take you stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Mark Lewis titled “By Every Historical Precedent, the Next Act Will be War” was posted at townhall.com on Sept. 9, 2023. Following is the article.

The following quote (by Will Durant in Chapter 28 of “Our Oriental Heritage”) is a bit lengthy, but please read it through. It is a brilliant and tragic analysis.

“The History of Japan is an unfinished drama in which three acts have been played.

“The first, barring the primitive and legendary centuries, is classical Buddhist Japan (522-1603 A.D.), suddenly civilized by China and Korea, refined and softened by religion, and creating the historical masterpieces of Japanese literature and art.

“The second is the feudal and peaceful Japan of the Tokugawa shogunate (1603-1868), isolated and self-contained, seeking no alien territory and no external trade, content with agriculture, and wedded to art and philosophy.

“The third act is modern Japan, opened up in 1853 by an American fleet, forced by conditions within and without to trade and industry, seeking foreign materials and markets, fighting wars of irrepressible ardor and methods of the West, and threatening both the ascendancy of the white race and the peace of the world.

“By every historical precedent, the next act will be war.

“The Japanese have studied our civilization carefully in order to absorb its values and surpass it. Perhaps we should be wise to study their civilization as patiently as they have studied ours, so that when a crisis comes that must issue either in war or understanding, we may be capable of understanding.”

I repeat: “By every historical precedent, the next act will be war.”

The words above were written in 1935, six years before the Japanese invasion of Pearl Harbor and the beginning of World War II in the Pacific.

No, we didn’t study their civilization – patiently. We didn’t understand them, and we got into a terrible conflict as a result.

Perhaps, by 1935, it was too late to thwart the Japanese aggression. But the point is still well made. By our failure to study history, by our not seeking to understand a foreign and much-different people, when the “crisis” came, there was war and not peace.

Japan is responsible for their aggression. They started a war, and they got what was coming to them. But could it have been different if we had been a better student of history?

I repeat: “By every historical precedent, the next act will be war.”

As I have reiterated so many times in my columns on Townhall and elsewhere, an ignorance of history is an inexcusable tragedy for a nation. It is also what totalitarian, Leftist regimes (like the Democratic Party) want.

Karl Marx wrote: “Keep people from their history, and they are easily controlled.”

“Historical precedent” can often give us meaningful clues to the future; not absolute predictions, but pretty good hints. Wars are often clashes between two great world (or regional) powers or involve upstarts who want to be up there with the big guys.

- Babylon and Egypt
- Babylon and Assyria
- Greece and Persia
- Rome and Carthage
- England and France
- England and Germany (twice)
- Japan and America

The world is simply not big enough for both King Kong and Godzilla. Somebody has to win; somebody has to lose. When there are two great powers, they will almost inevitably, eventually, go to war for dominance.

America and the Soviet Union never directly confronted each other – except in a frightful, world-menacing “Cold War.” But the peripheries existed – Korea, Vietnam, and 100 places where the USSR fought to the last Cuban and American couldn’t stay neutral.

I’ve often said there are no absolutes in history, but war is about as close as one gets to it – especially when two muscle-men stand eye-to-eye and toe-to-toe. Somebody inevitably throws the first punch. Neither side backs down.

Is war between America and China inevitable?

I repeat: “By every historical precedent, the next act will be war.”

- America is the great world power.
- China (the upstart) is seeking grander glory and self-aggrandizement.

Who stands in the way of China? (Only one nation – the United States.)

Are we going to give up our place in the world to somebody else? (No nation in history has ever voluntarily done so. That is a historical absolute.)

War between America and China isn't inevitable. Both could avoid it, though only by accident and/or weakness.

- Suppose Joe Biden and the Democrats continue along their current path of destroying America. In that case, all China needs to do is wait. America will self-destruct, and China will step into world dominance without a fight.
- On the other hand, China is a Marxist-based country. Such nations haven't tended to last long. By all indications, China's economy is currently struggling mightily. Is it cyclical, or is it structural?

We waited, put pressure, and the USSR collapsed – mainly due to financial destabilization. It could happen to China.

- One of the two countries might implode, and a horrific might be avoided.
- But there can be only one “King of the Hill.” And usually, historically, it takes a war to put that king there.

China is our threat. No, let me restate that. Joe Biden and the Uniparty is America's greatest threat.

They are wasting America's resources and energy on Ukraine's absolutely unimportant (to America's interests) conflict.

Folks, the Ukrainian war is a flea on an elephant's back. It is (as Ron DeSantis so accurately assessed) a “regional conflict.” It has nothing to do with us or the true menace to America's position in the world. [Name withheld] is an incredibly stupid man. [Three names withheld] and those supporting that conflict are incredibly stupid obtuse.

There will be no war between Russia and America unless the Uniparty causes it.

Russia isn't the hazard; China is.

Greece didn't imperil Carthage; Rome did. The upstart Romans. "Carthago delenda est!" War resulted. And Carthage was indeed destroyed.

Wars are often bundled into via incompetent leadership.

Sometimes, they are historically inevitable.

We might be able to avoid war with China. But only – only – by knowing history and its solutions.

An article by Tony Lentini titled "Discrimination, Excommunication and Indoctrination" was posted at americanthinker.com on Sept. 9, 2023. Following are excerpts of the article.

DEI (the acronym for so-called Diversity, Equity and Inclusion that has infiltrated and infected American society) is like so many things in Biden's America – the exact opposite of what it claims to be.

Diversity (or discrimination)

Diversity as practiced in contemporary America has been corrupted to mean "exclusionary."

Dr. Martin Luther King's dream ("that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character") now is but a pile of ashes.

Discrimination based on race, color, religion or national origin is evil – whether it targets black people, whites or anyone else. But now it is practiced with impunity by modern-day, leftists Klansmen who apparently comprise nearly half the U.S. population.

Equity (or excommunication)

Equity is another false promise based on a false premise. Equal opportunity is a central tenet of American life and law. But equity (equal outcomes, despite the amount of work and effort one expends or does not expend) is Marxist claptrap.

The concept ("from each according to his ability, to each according to his needs") is a recipe for disaster – disincentivizing education and work by robbing the industrious of their hard-earned money and giving it to slothful parasites.

In communist societies, the people suffer – with long lines for insufficient goods and a basic subsistence living for the peasants (while Party members dine on caviar and are transported to their dachas in stretch limousines).

The real “E” in DEI stands for Excommunication: Do as your betters say or be culled from society, imprisoned or marginalized (with no voice, no ownership, no job, no rights whatsoever). The Soviets had their Gulags, while America has its squalid D.C. prisons where January 6 demonstrators now languish. Meanwhile, rioters, arsonists and murderers from the Floyd riots walk free.

Express an opinion contrary to the “narrative” (government dogma) and you will be banned from social media, doxed by leftists, slandered by the media, ignored by the media, fired from work and/or investigated by our Gestapo FBI. If you need examples, you haven’t been paying attention.

Inclusion (or indoctrination)

Inclusion (the 3rd word in the DEI acronym) is another lie. What the “I” really means is Indoctrination – both overt and covert.

Overt indoctrination takes place in the news media, schools, corporate America, government and even in our military.

- There are numerous genders.
- Men can menstruate, become pregnant and compete safely and fairly in women’s sports.
- Color-blindness and America itself are racist.
- Bidenomics equals prosperity.
- Puberty blockers, “gender affirming surgeries” and drag shows for children are healthy.
- Climate change is destroying the planet.
- “Silence is Violence.”
- The Covid virus originated in a Wuhan wet market and vaccines are safe and effective.
- Masking prevents transmission of the virus.

Covert indoctrination is more subtle.

- News organizations simply do not cover stories that may be true, but don’t fit the narrative – Hunter’s laptop, election fraud in 2020 and the 2020 riots were “mostly peaceful protests” are simply three examples.
- Advertizing has become a major indoctrination vehicle in this country.

Dividing Americans

What are some effects of Discrimination, Excommunication and Indoctrination?

- They are dividing Americans.
- They are undermining trust in our institutions.
- They are destroying the very foundation of our Republic.

Have you ever noticed what happens in a totalitarian society?

- Elites rule.
- Normal people have little say
- Normal people own less.
- Normal people live in Soviet-style housing.
- Normal people travel on filthy and unsafe mass transportation.
- Like it or else.

An article by Lindsay Kornick titled “Democrat Party Chairwoman (Who Once Called to Defund the Police) Carjacked and Assaulted in Minneapolis” was posted at foxnews.com on Sept. 8, 2023. Following are excerpts of the article.

Shivanthi Sathanandan (the 2nd Vice Chairwoman of the Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party) posted Wednesday [Sept. 6] on Facebook that she was “violently carjacked” by “four very young men, all carrying guns.”

She said they assaulted her in front of her children outside their home in broad daylight. She also included a photo of her head injuries and reported having a “broken leg, deep lacerations on my head, bruising and cuts” around her body as well as feeling “rage” against the lack of accountability against criminals.

Sathanandan wrote: “These men knew what they were doing. I have NO DOUBT they have done this before. Yet they are still on OUR STREETS. Killing mothers. Giving babies psychological trauma that a lifetime of therapy cannot erase. With no hesitation and no remorse.”

Though she thanked police officers for their response, at the height of the George Floyd riots in June 2020, Sathanandan wrote Facebook posts supporting efforts to “dismantle” the police.

In 2020, Sathanandan wrote: “We are going to dismantle the Minneapolis Police Department. Say it with me. DISMANTLE the Minneapolis Police Department. As allies, what can we do right now? Listen and learn from our black siblings. And then Amplify this message right now, in this moment. MPD has systematically failed the black community. They have failed ALL OF US.

It's time to build a new infrastructure that works for ALL communities. If you are still disagreeing with that BASIC FACT, I'm not sure what to say to you."

[On May 27, 2020, she also wrote: "I'm proud of my alma mater tonight. Good job, University of Minnesota. Cutting all ties with the MPD is the right decision."]

An article by Brianna Lyman titled "CNN Host [Poppy Harlow] Whips Out New Mexico Constitution, Point Blank Asks Governor [Michelle Lujan Grisham] If She's Violating It" was posted at dailycaller.com on Sept. 12, 2023. Following are excerpts of the article.

On Tuesday, CNN's Poppy Harlow Confronted Democratic Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham on her 30-day ban on Second Amendment rights in Albuquerque.

Grisham issued an emergency order banning all firearms from being carried in Albuquerque for 30 days, arguing there is a public health emergency. Both open and concealed carry are prohibited.

"I'm focused on everyone's Constitutional rights, not just those the NRA says I should be focused on," Grisham said before Harlow cut in to tell her it's not just the NRA that is concerned.

Grisham then threatened to impose civil penalties if authorities won't impose the declaration.

"It's not for police to tell me what's constitutional or not," Grisham said. "This are NRA talking points about their rights and not about anybody's else's. And it not a ban, it's a temporary pause."

Harlow cut in: "But we also have Governor, the Constitution of New Mexico and the Constitution of the United States. Do you think you're on solid constitutional ground here?"

"Well we're gonna see," Grisham said. "I wouldn't do it if I didn't think I had the right. I have the right . . ."

Harlow interjected: "But where is the right?"

Grisham responded: "In the state of New Mexico, public health – it's a suspension, it's not a ban."

Harlow explained: "The New Mexico Constitution, Article II Section VI says 'no law shall abridge the right of citizens to keep and bear arms for security and defense. No municipality or county shall regulate, in anyway, an incident of the right to keep and bear arms.'"

Harlow asked: "Are you not in violation of both the U.S. Constitution and your state's constitution?”

Harlow then played an exchange Grisham had with a reporter last week in which the reporter asked Grisham whether she believed criminals would abide by the 30-day ban.

And Grisham flatly said “no.”

Isaiah 55:6-11—“Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
