Like most Americans, I was shocked by the vicious inhumanity that the coward terrorist group Hamas carried out in Israel last weekend. Unfortunately, organized evil is neither unique nor surprising.

- The Nazis were equally evil across Europe.
- As were the Japanese at Nanking.
- As was Stalin with Ukraine.
- As was Mao with his own people.

Sadly, evil happens and devils exist – although, thankfully, they are rarely celebrated.

But “rarely” doesn’t mean never. And the most shocking thing last week wasn’t the evil that Hamas perpetrated – but rather the extraordinary support it has received.

Not only is Hamas’ evil finding exuberant support in places like Iran and Qatar (where you might expect it), but there were tens of thousands of Muslims (and their liberal comrades) in places like New York, Detroit and Washington out en masse vocally demonstrating their support for these monsters.

And it wasn’t just on the streets. In places like Harvard, Yale and NYU, you had students, professors and organizations blaming Israel for Hamas’s inhumanity.

Even as the full extent of the carnage emerged (days after the world was able to see the barbarity of what the savages carried out), the rallies in support not only didn’t diminish but they seemed to grow. I couldn’t help but wonder what that portends for our future.

I wondered to myself – what is wrong with these people, and why are they allowed to do this?

The answer: Free speech – that extraordinary thing we have that Muslim countries don’t.

That led my brain to a quote this often (falsely) attributed to Winston Churchill: “When Muslims are in the minority, they are very concerned with minority rights. When they are in the majority, there are no minority rights.”

You might say: “Muslims are barely 1% of the population, so they can’t be a threat.”

Maybe, but think about this: Trans people are fewer in number than Muslims, yet today we find ourselves amid national fights about bathrooms, sports and the “medical” butchering of children.

Interesting, most of the people who support the LBGTQXYZ123 agenda also support “Palestine.”

The irony, of course, is that Gazans would almost certainly throw the alphabet people off the tops of buildings were they to go there.

- How does a pluralistic, secular state that values individual liberty deal with vile ideas that are repugnant to the basic elements of the culture, and with those who espouse those repugnant ideas?
- Is the Constitution a suicide pact that allows those who object to its foundational principles to use the document’s freedoms to take power in order to eliminate our constitutional republic?

In his autobiography, Malcolm X talks about being invited to speak at Harvard and other prestigious universities when he was still spewing much of his anti-white racist venom. He marvels that, while he was invited to speak and said things that most of the audience disagreed with, they were always courteous and usually engaged in a healthy, respectful dialogue.

Contrast that with today’s conservative speakers (such as Heather MacDonald, Ann Coulter or Ben Shapiro) who have had events cancelled or found themselves drowned out and threatened by leftists who equate speech they don’t like with violence.

Not surprisingly, a recent poll showed that 66% of college students find this acceptable, while another showed that 65% of Democrats supported censoring “misinformation.”

Now, maybe this vile and public championing of hate will be a tipping point where the Democrat coalition fractures as the various victim classes it has nurtured twist themselves into pretzels trying to be good team players.

I doubt it though – because Democrats in toto hate America, hate freedom and hate Donald Trump’s MAGA approach. They are bound together by these hatreds and will always put power above everything else.

Nonetheless, what we saw over the last week should (I hope) cause more people to take notice of those who would use our freedoms to end them for everyone else.

An article by Phyllis Chester titled “Response to Hamas Horror Shows the Feminist Movement

Has Lost Its Moral Compass” was posted at nypost.com on Oct. 18, 2023. Following are excerpts of the article.

---

I have pioneered women’s right for more than 50 years.

Sadly, I must conclude that what was once a diverse and independent-minded movement has become hijacked by a “woke” death cult.

Those American feminists left standing have drawn the following conclusions.

- They are favoring gender over sex identity.
- They are pro-trans rather than pro-biological-womankind.
- They are more obsessed with the alleged occupation of a country that has never existed (Palestine, Gaza) than they are with the occupation of female bodies in Gaza – where girls and women are forced into child and polygamous marriages, made to veil and (together with male homosexuals) “honor” killed by their families.

This is a horrifying moment in history.

When Hamas (an ISIS-like, Taliban-like terrorist group) has savagely and sadistically murdered, tortured, mutilated, raped and burned Israeli civilians alive (including babies, young women and grandmothers), I note a terrible silence, a moral failure among those women – including women activists who live in freedom in America.

Feminists (including academics and human-rights-organization officials) rose up and at least cried out when Afghan, Saudi, Iranian, Pakistani, Yazidi and Ukrainian women were raped, kidnapped into sex slavery or murdered.

Mandy Sanghera and I formed a grassroots feminist team in 2021 that rescued 400 women from Afghanistan. We cannot believe feminists’ almost absolute silence after Hamas launched its terrorist attack against Jews this month – which included raping young women next to their dead friends and then parading them, bloodied between their legs, through Gaza streets.

Rape in a war zone is considered a crime – as long as the victims are not Jews.

Indeed, not that Hamas has launched both an old-fashioned and a new-fashioned livestreamed pogrom against Israeli Jews and against all those non-Jews (including Americans) who live in Israel, feminists have maintained a strange silence.

The failure to even grapple with this subject speaks volumes.

The feminist movement is moribund, hijacked, “Palestinianized” and Stalinized. It is, at best, an arm of the Democratic Party – which shows every sign of restraining if not betraying Israel.

Can American military might and Israeli military intelligence unite to find and free the Israeli hostages?

Can we capture and put the Iran-backed Hamas fiends on trial?

Can we force Egypt to open the Rafah crossing?

Can we force other Arab and Muslim countries to welcome Gazan civilians?

Can we finally wrestle with the existential and global threat that a nearly nuclear Iran poses to both America and the Middle East?

Feminists aren’t grappling with any of these questions. Their silence speaks volumes.

Isaiah 55:6-11—“Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
