But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take you stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Tom McAllister titled “Our Third Battle for Independence” was posted at americanthinker.com on July 4, 2024. Following are excerpts of the article.

Mark Twain once opined: “History doesn’t repeat itself, but it does rhyme.”

A previous American Thinker article noted that Scottish professor Alexander Tytler developed a similar observation specific to republics: Throughout history, they all follow a particular life cycle. According to his defined cycle (and barring a dramatic change in our nation’s conduct), America is soon destined for collapse.

Best-selling author Jonathan Cahn has highlighted stunning parallels between specific periods in the history of Israel and the current state of the United States. These parallels are both precise in their details and alarming in their implications. Cahn also warns that without a significant change in our collective beliefs and behavior, our nation will soon fall.

As we celebrate America’s birthday, we remember that our Founding Fathers promulgated a particular worldview for our nation in the Declaration of Independence. In our official worldview, we are not children of chance, but descendants of the Divine. The Founders proclaimed self-evident truths: All men are created equal, endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights – including Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

They viewed God as the Supreme Judge of the world and addressed Him as Divine Providence – meaning that God did not just press the cosmic start button and sit back to watch, but is intimately involved with human affairs. Later, in drafting our Constitution, they referenced Jesus Christ by signing it in the Year of Our (nation’s) Lord. Our national motto succinctly summarizes these beliefs: “In God we trust.”

“In God we trust” is the nail upon which our Constitution hangs. It is the unifying principle that creates the unum with the e pluribus. It also forms the basis of belief critical to our nation’s survival.

The founding of our nation was not without challenges and some tragic irony. Thomas Jefferson, who wrote that all men are created equal, was a slave owner. The Declaration’s principles and ideals were correct – the proper execution of them was not.

The failure to address this grave injustice by kicking the can down the road was costly – leading to one of the largest civil wars in human history.

In our nation’s second struggle for independence, President Lincoln (while speaking at the battlefield site in Gettysburg) framed it by referring to our founding: “Four score and seven years ago, our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure.”

Our nation survived this horrific ordeal and, in the following century, became the most powerful nation on earth.

Now, we are in our third contest for independence, and the battlefield is not a physical one but a spiritual one. The warfare today is over spiritual bondage.

Are we (the people) children of God or unknowing slaves of Satan?

As our Constitution allows, it's our choice and we need to choose wisely. The necessity of the “In God we trust” nail is now being challenged. The woke movement (undergirded by cultural Marxism) directly attacks its presence. Marxism is most understood as a political embrace of the grossly ineffective policies of socialism and communism.

However, its pinnacle objective (as Karl Marx declared) is to “dethrone God.”

Removing God spawns evil. There are no spiritual vacuums. Currently, the major influencers atop five of the seven cultural mountains embrace a secular philosophy. Only religion and families that follow a life of faith prioritize trust in God.

This is the true choice for America. We began as a nation under God, trusting Him and asking for His guidance and blessings. Do we pursue Him or embrace the untethered woke philosophy of doing whatever you want? What is your cornerstone?

Isaiah 55:6-11—“Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
