But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take you stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Eric Blum titled “Caitlin Clark Responds [With Class and Maturity] to Serena Williams ‘White People’ Joke During the ESPYs” was posted at dailymail.co.uk on July 15, 2024. Following are excerpts of the article.

Caitlin Clark was watching the ESPYs on her couch, alone, when host [black tennis legend] Serena Williams fired off a joke poking fun at her being well liked by “white people.”

Williams said: “Caitlin Clark had an amazing year and is nominated for three awards. You are the Larry Bird in that you are an amazing player, you have ties to Indiana, and white people are really crazy about you.”

Clark won in all three categories in which she was nominated, upping her lifetime ESPY total to five (alongside the two awards she won last year).

Caitlin responded: “Yeah, I was watching it live. I was just sitting on my couch by myself . . . Something that really stood out to me was like how much women’s basketball was a part of the show . . . It shows where women’s basketball is going and obviously women’s athletics in general. Obviously, Serena did a tremendous job hosting. I think it just shows the excitement around the game and how many people watch and pay attention.”

For the second consecutive year, Clark won for best “Female College Athlete” – while also taking home the overall “Female Athlete” award this year.

She also became the first female to win the “Record-Breaking Performance” award at the ESPYs.

Concerning that honor, she said: “It probably shouldn’t have been the first woman to win that award . . . How did Serena Williams never win that award?”

Isaiah 55:6-11–“Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
