Luke 21:34-36—“But take heed to yourselves, lest your souls be weighed down with self-indulgence, and drunkenness, or the anxieties of this life, and that day come on you suddenly, like a falling trap; for it will come on all dwellers on the face of the whole earth. But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take your stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Eleanor Dearman titled “Texas Leads Nation in Population Growth – Here’s What’s Driving the Gains [International Migration]” was posted at star-telegram.com on Dec. 26, 2024. Following are excerpts of the article.

Texas gained more new people than any other state between 2023 and July 2024, according to Census data.

Population growth.

- Texas jumped by 562,941 people
- Florida jumped by 467,347
- California jumped by 232,570

Percentage of increase.

- Washington, D.C. by 2.2%
- Florida by 2%
- Texas by 1.8%

The nation's population has topped 340 million people, and is growing the fastest it has since 2001 – the growth is primarily driven by net international migration.

The South was the fastest growing region overall – gaining more people than all of the other regions combined.

All but three states had populations that grew between 2023 and 2024 – Mississippi, West Virginia and Vermont.

An article by Rusty Weiss titled “Scott Jennings Nukes Democrat Party, Sends Panel in Disarray With Explanation on Why They Lost” was posted at redstate.com on Dec. 24, 2025. Following are excerpts of the article.

CNN's conservative political analyst Scott Jennings created a bit of a stir this Christmas Eve, responding rather succinctly to why the Democrat party suffered a thrashing defeat in the elections and causing the panel to end in chaotic fashion.

The debate got a little wild when “CNN News Central” co-host Kate Bolduan offered Democratic strategist Maria Cardona an opportunity to respond to figures in her party openly criticizing messaging from their leaders.

Cardona gave a rambling response in which she tried to convince herself that President-elect Donald Trump hadn't won the election by much – claiming there was no sweeping mandate and he just barely squeaked by Kamala Harris.

“We certainly have work to do, but there's not question that the Democrats still stand for making sure that everyone has the ability to acquire the American Dream,” Cardona said of the party that spent the last four years decimating the American dream.

When the nearly five-minute segment had concluded, Bolduan said Jennings would have a chance to respond – next time around.

Well, he wasn't thrilled about that, complaining about being filibustered out of a response, and eventually prompted Bolduan to give him an extra 30 seconds.

Scott Jennings said: “It took Maria five minutes. Here is 10 seconds. Democrats are the party of uncommon sense. Republicans are the party of common sense. It's why our tent right now is full of such a wide ideological spectrum. People are flocking to the Republicans because we stand for common sense. And Democrats have taken on all this uncommon fringe nonsense. If they are in the toilet, my advice. Flush away the fringe and the people who have drug you down there. Because this is why Republicans won the election.”

Bouduan mouthed the words “oh geez” and had to look away.

Cardona could be seen off to the side, trying to interject as Jennings explained why the uncommon fringe (weird people, if you will) is basically leading the Democrat party.

After many a head shake and eye roll, she was able to get this shot in: “Wanting to invade Greenland and Panama, I don’t think that’s common sense.”

Boulduan, at this point, interjected with a threat to cut their mics and demanded the two “just zip it.”

Isaiah 55:6-11—“Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
