Luke 21:34-36—“But take heed to yourselves, lest your souls be weighed down with self-indulgence, and drunkenness, or the anxieties of this life, and that day come on you suddenly, like a falling trap; for it will come on all dwellers on the face of the whole earth. But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take your stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Sadie Whitelocks titled “Top Doctors Reveal [10] Things They Would Never Let Their Kids Do” was posted at dailymail.co.uk on Dec. 28, 2024. Following are excerpts of the article.

- Pediatric anesthesiologist – I would never let my child (younger than age 5) to eat grapes without cutting them up first, because of the choking risk it poses.
 - Neurosurgeon – I would never let my son ride an ATV, because the risk for a traumatic brain injury is too high.
 - Gastroenterologist – I would never let my kids play with toys that come with button batteries, because of the risk of choking and chemical burns.
 - OB/GYN – I would never let my children go to school without teaching them about periods and birth control, for the risk of unplanned pregnancy and STIs.
 - Orthopedic spine surgeon – I would never own an in-home trampoline, because of the risk of broken bones.
 - Eye care specialist – I would never let my child sleep in contact lenses, as it can lead to vision loss and permanent scarring.
 - Obesity medicine specialist – I would never let my children feel guilty about their food choices, as this could result in anxiety, shame, and unhealthy ways of eating.

- Internist – I would make sure my kids would never text and drive, because of the risk of deadly car crashes.
- Cardiologist – I would never let my kids vape, as it can increase the risk of addiction, sleep problems, anxiety and depression.
- Neuro-Developmental pediatrician – I would never let my children go to a sleepover, because of the risk of sexual abuse and injury in the care of others.

H-1B visas – in June 2020, Trump temporarily suspended H-1B visas – (because of covid)

- Looking back to January 2021, a press release by International Student and Scholar Services (at the University of Pennsylvania) titled “Updated: President Trump Temporarily Suspends Entry by Certain H, J, and L Non-Immigrants” was posted at upenn.edu on Jan. 13, 2021. Following is an excerpt: “On June 22, 2020, President Donald Trump issued the ‘Proclamation Suspending Entry of Aliens Who Present a Risk to the U.S. Labor Market Following the Coronavirus Outbreak’ which suspended the entry of certain non-immigrant visa categories until December 31, 2020. On December 31, 2020, President Trump issued a new proclamation which extended this suspension to March 31, 2021. The parameters of the proclamation remain the same.” [While all of Trump’s decisions are open to evaluation, his critics often fail to point out three facts about this decision – (first) it happened in June 2020; (second) it was called temporary; and (third) it was connected to the coronavirus.]

3. Request House committee undertake aggressive authorizations and appropriations reviews, including providing additional resources where needed, to expose irresponsible or illegal practices and hold agencies/individuals accountable that have weaponized government against the American people.

An article by Gage Klipper titled “There’s Only One Way Kamala’s Reported $20 Million Book Deal Won’t Flop” was posted at dailycaller.com on Dec. 27, 2024. Following are excerpts of the article.

Twice-failed presidential candidate Kamala Harris reportedly has a big book deal coming down the pike. But the vice president shouldn't kid herself – no one cares about her, they are only tuning in to see the dirt she has to dish on others. The book is doomed to fail unless she delivers. If she does, she stands to collect a pretty big windfall. They are throwing around advance numbers in the $20 million range.

That might not be quite Obama figures – the former first couple reportedly raked in a $65 million advance from Penguin Random House in 2017.

But it certainly trumps the $14 million Hillary Clinton took in for her own reflections on political failure.

Publishers aren't fighting to tell The Kamala Story – she is nothing more than patsy in her own autobiography.

Publishers want the truth of the Biden administration.

- Who was really running the country and pulling the strings of critical campaign decisions?
- How badly was Joe Biden himself incapacitated?
- Who knew what, when?
- Harris might even want to air out some “skeletons” after her embarrassing defeat (which certainly carries a lot of blame to go around) – But the same puppet masters who bullied Biden into bowing out of the race will be damned if they let her blow their cover in a tell-all book.

A Harris memoir (if it comes to fruition) will have some juicy tidbits designed to capture headlines and might weave a selection of half-truths into a moderately compelling narrative.

What it certainly won't do is tell the whole truth, because that would implicate the entire Democratic Party establishment. If Harris wants to have any sort of comfortable future where she's “taken care of,” she knows this is the one thing she can't do. No real lessons will be learned, no real costs will be paid, and the American people will continue to be treated like gullible rubes.

Isaiah 55:6-11–“Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
