Compiled by Dave Havir

Luke 21:34-36—“But take heed to yourselves, lest your souls be weighed down with self-indulgence, and drunkenness, or the anxieties of this life, and that day come on you suddenly, like a falling trap; for it will come on all dwellers on the face of the whole earth. But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take your stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

“Eye on the World” comment: Historical statement – The media, politicians and the deep state were successful in obstructing the first presidential term of Donald Trump. Question – “Will the media, politicians and deep state repeat the successful obstruction during the second presidential term of Donald Trump?”

A classic dirty political trick that didn’t work to win the [2016] election, but worked phenomenally well to handicap a president throughout his entire presidency. The American public ought to be outraged by what happened here, but the silence in the media is revealing. I’ve never believed the media was really duped; I think many members of the media were completely complicit.’”

An article by M. Walter titled “Dan Bongino’s Life, Fortune and Sacred Honor” was posted at americanthinker.com on Feb. 24, 2025. Following is the article.

We know he was willing to sacrifice his life for presidents [when was a member of the Secret Service charged with protecting presidents].

Now we know he is willing to sacrifice his fortune.

We’ll talk about his sacred honor in a bit. But first we need to pause and really appreciate what this man has done – now that he’s accepted an appointment as Deputy Director of the F.B.I.

When Dan (I hope he’ll forgive me the informality) came up from the NYPD to the Secret Service, it wasn’t yet woke. Standards still mattered. Only the elite of the elite made it to the Secret Service to begin with and of those, only the elite of the whole next-level of elite got to protect presidents. Dan was one of those men.

He walked away to serve. He gave up a nice salary and job security (such as it is when your job is to take a bullet for your protectee). He ran for political office, and lost. Twice. No small matter this, as he had a wife and two daughters to support. It was a huge sacrifice, but service called.

Service has called him again, and once again, he is the elite of the elite. His podcast has a larger audience than most of the networks. And one can easily presume the money is pretty good, as he’s just finished building a new broadcast studio for it. The paint isn’t even dry.

He’s walked away to serve. He’s walked away to serve an institution that will test his sacred honor.

The F.B.I (which Director Kash Patel and his new Deputy Director Dan Bongino will lead) is a broken institution. This “rank and file” nonsense is just that: nonsense.

The rot is deep and wide. No doubt there are good agents. But if future performance is based on recent past performance, they will be the exception and not the rule – and that’s a very, very heavy lift.

- We are familiar with the stories about pre-dawn raids on elderly January 6 participants.

- We are familiar with the stories about agents walking parking lots at school meetings to write down the license plate numbers of the attendees there to protest porn in their children's school.
- We've seen the kneeling and the frog-marching of peaceful protestors in leg-irons.
- The last five to ten years have absolutely cratered conservative America's esteem in this once elite police institution.
- While the progressive left has had their totalitarian tickle, the rest of us have been gutted.
- It has been an education.

And we will not forget. As for forgiveness, it will come with accountability.

The Hoover Building needs to be fumigated, purged and (would that we could) entirely gutted of all but the few left who remember basic civics.

We know Deputy Director Ban Bongino knows his civics. He has spoken movingly about the power to deprive someone of their liberty, so I know we are in good hands.

May Kash Patel and he remember always that our lives and fortunes are bound up in the preservation of their sacred honor.

Isaiah 55:6-11—"Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. 'For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,' says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it."
