Luke 21:34-36—“But take heed to yourselves, lest your souls be weighed down with self-indulgence, and drunkenness, or the anxieties of this life, and that day come on you suddenly, like a falling trap; for it will come on all dwellers on the face of the whole earth. But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take your stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Rachel Scully titled “What Is a ‘Bunker Buster’ Bomb?” was posted at thehill.com on June 17, 2025. Following are excerpts of the article (that was written before the U.S. attacked Iran’s nuclear facilities).

President Trump is facing a critical decision on whether to use America’s B-2 bombers to drop the GBU-57 bunker buster bombs on the Fordow nuclear facility, which is buried in the mountains of Iran.

Israel has neither the GBU-57 bomb or the B-2 bombers to fly them. Their use is seen as critical for hitting the Fordow facility.

What is the GBU-57?

While a bunker bomb is a broad term to refer to bombs designed to penetrate deep below the surface before exploding, Trump is deciding whether to utilize the latest BGU-57A/B Massive Ordnance Penetrator (MOP) bomb currently residing in the American arsenal.

The latest bomb delivers 10 times more explosive power than its predecessor, the BLU-109 (according to the Air Force).

The warhead is a large, GPS-guided, penetrating weapon with the ability to attack deeply buried and hardened bunkers and tunnels – according to the latest report from the director of Operational Test and Evaluation (DOTE) which is part of the Office of the Secretary of Defense. It is know to penetrate about 200 feet below the surface before exploding.

The MOP is critical to taking out highly fortified targets buried under mountainous areas, such as those found in Iran, Russia, China and North Korea (according to The War Zone). The guided weapon can impact the surface above its target with a high degree of accuracy.

B-2 stealth bomber

The only way to deliver the bomb is through a U.S. B-2 stealth bomber, which can hold 40,000 pounds.

However, the U.S. Air Force said it has successfully tested the B-2 loaded with two of the GBU-57A/B bunker busters – which in total weigh about 60,000 pounds.

Each bomb is about 20 ½ feet long (according to the Air Force).

The warhead's case is made from a special high-performance steel alloy (according to another report from the DOTE). The bomb's design allows for a large explosive payload while maintaining the integrity of the penetrator case during impact.

The MOP is the most powerful, deeply burrowing non-nuclear bunker buster in the world.

- Development of the bomb began in 2004.
- In 2009, Boeing became the prime contractor to complete MOP/Aircraft integration.
- As of 2015, Boeing had delivered at least 20 of the bombs.
- While the exact size of the current MOP stockpile is not known, it's believed to be small.

An article by Jonathan Neal titled “I’m a Psychotherapist and These Are 10 Key Warning Signs Someone in Your Life Is a Narcissist” was posted at dailymail.co.uk on June 21, 2025. Following are excerpts of the article.

It is estimated that up to one in 20 people in the UK may suffer from the disorder to some degree (according to research), and some experts claim that it under diagnosed.

Specialists also warn that narcissists can be abusive – as their behavior can manifest in various forms of emotional, psychological and even physical abuse.

1. They always change the narrative so they appear as the victim.
2. They always need excessive validation, praise, compliments and attention.

3. They get incredibly jealous when you try to have a life, see friends, go out with family or engage in hobbies.
4. They're always doubting you, making you feel worthless or criticizing you.
5. It's their way or the highway – there is no room for compromise.
6. If you manage to go not contact, they will stalk you, spy on you or harass you. This might be through social media, other people or in person.
7. They will use triangulation – recruiting people close to you in hope of getting them on their side.
8. They expect to be the most important thing in your life every second of every day. Be prepared to deal with rage/violence if you can't answer their calls or texts instantly.
9. They will isolate you from everyone and everything until you no longer recognize yourself.
10. They will love bomb you when their grip on you starts to loosen. You will think they are changed and try to see their good points – only to be disappointed again and again.

An article by Matt Margolis titled “Now We Know Why the Minnesota Assassin Story Disappeared Overnight” was posted at pjmedia.com on June 20, 2025.

Have you wondered why the story of the Minnesota assassin Vance Boelter has suddenly vanished from the news? Now we have a pretty good idea why.

Boelter, who murdered State Rep. Melissa Hortman and her husband (while also shooting State Sen. John Hoffman and his wife) unleashed terror that sparked a massive manhunt before his capture late Sunday.

- Initial media coverage was rife with speculation, with left-leaning outlets eager to cast Boelter as a MAGA Republican, hastily blaming the GOP and even President Donald Trump for inciting his shooting spree.
- Yet the letter found in Boelter’s abandoned vehicle tells a radically different story – one that not only exposes the media’s rush to judgment and political opportunism, but sudden drop in coverage.
- According to Minnesota’s largest newspaper (the Star-Tribune), Boelter believed he was acting under the supposed orders of Democrat Governor Till Walz. Boelter’s incoherent letter (about a page and a half long) bizarrely claimed that killing Senator Amy Klobuchar was necessary to clear the way for Walz to run for the U.S. Senate.
- The media’s rush to blame conservatives and the governor’s passive complicity in allowing false narratives to spread are failures that demand scrutiny.

- The truth matter, and in this case, it exposes a grotesque distortion of reality by those eager to score political points amid a horrific crime.
- The deliberate misinformation campaign explains why the story vanished from the headlines so quickly. Once the facts emerged, the narrative that fit the media’s partisan agenda collapsed.
- The silence that followed speaks volumes about the lengths to which some will go to manipulate public perception and exploit tragedy for political gain.

Isaiah 55:6-11–“Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
