Luke 21:34-36–“But take heed to yourselves, lest your souls be weighed down with self-indulgence, and drunkenness, or the anxieties of this life, and that day come on you suddenly, like a falling trap; for it will come on all dwellers on the face of the whole earth. But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take your stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Landon Mion and Lauren Green titled “Attacks on U.S. Churches Have Risen Significantly Since 2021, Report Finds” was posted at foxnews.com on Aug. 31, 2025. Following are excerpts of the article.

Attacks targeting churches in the U.S. have increased significantly in recent years, according to a report, and the recent shooting at a Minnesota Catholic school is the latest example.

The Family Research Council (an evangelical nonprofit and activist group) reported the following information about hostile incidents targeting churches.

- | | | |
|---|--------------|-----------------|
| • | 2018 to 2024 | 1,384 incidents |
| • | 2018 | 50 incidents |
| • | 2019 | 83 incidents |
| • | 2020 | 55 incidents |
| • | 2021 | 98 incidents |
| • | 2022 | 198 incidents |
| • | 2023 | 485 incidents |
| • | 2024 | 415 incidents |

Although there was a dip in 2024, the 415 incidents reported affected a total of 383 churches across 43 states – according to the Family Research Council.

The report said: “As in previous years, states with larger populations tended to have more

incidents.”

Here are the states that reported the most incidents last year.

- California 40 incidents
- Pennsylvania 29 incidents
- Florida and New York 25 incidents
- Texas 23 incidents
- Ohio and Tennessee 19 incidents

The report reads: “Vandalism remained the most common type of incident, many states with high numbers of incidents in 2023 also ranked among the top in 2024. And many incidents were similar in nature to those from the previous year. Some significant differences in 2024 were the increase in gun-related incidents and the decrease in incidents motivated by pro-abortion sentiments.”

While the motivations behind many of these incidents remain unknown, the rise in crimes against churches is happening as fewer Americans are attending religious services in person.

An article by Newt Gingrich titled “The Elites vs. Democracy and Popular Government” was posted at gingrich360.com on Sept. 4, 2025. Following is the article.

British law enforcement recently arrested Irish comedian Graham Lindham Linehan for a social media post criticizing a transgender activist. UK Prime Minister Keir Starmer’s government felt the post threatened public order, so five armed police arrested the comedian at Heathrow Airport.

- For decades in Oldham, England, parents have gone to political leaders alleging their daughters had been raped or groomed into prostitution by Pakistani immigrant gangs. Many of these parents were threatened with arrest for anti-Pakistani rhetoric and turned away.

British Parliamentarian Nigel Farage even came to America to testify in front of Congress about how dangerous the threat to free speech has become in his country.

- Meanwhile in France, leading conservative politician Marine Le Pen has been barred from running for office and sentenced to jail. European Union establishment opponents accused her, and her party, of embezzling European Parliament funds to pay party staff. Le Pen is the likely pick for French President in 2027. She is appealing the case, but the standing restrictions from her running for office could ultimately overrule French voters.

- In Hungary and Poland, the European Union has applied economic pressure to convince the two populist nations to modify their nationalist positions. The EU wants the Polish and Hungarian governments to instead allow Brussels to dictate policies which the Polish and Hungarian people reject. In each of these instances – setting aside the particulars of individual cases – the European elites have been going all-out to defeat, restrict, or overrule opposing parties or ideas. This suppression of the popular will is ultimately counterproductive – even for the elites themselves. History tells us that popular movements that are suppressed grow rapidly and eventually erupt. The political beneficiaries of these eruptions sometimes come with problems of their own – and pose even greater threats to the establishments that sought to subvert them.

- You see this in Germany. After years of the establishment parties denouncing all speech against immigration, the Alternative for Deutschland (AfD) is growing rapidly. Its leaders have used Nazi slogans and advocated deporting citizens who are not ethnically German. Despite the extreme rhetoric, it is the only party raising issues about crime and immigration. AfD is not the largest opposition party in Germany.
- Similarly, in the Netherlands, Geert Wilders has moved from being an isolated protest politician with proposals to ban the Koran, restrict immigration from Muslim countries, and close Mosques. After years of suppression, he's the leader of the largest party in the Dutch Parliament. The establishment is horrified and does everything it can to stop Wilders from becoming prime minister.

Of course, this pattern of leftwing establishments suppressing populist opposition movements is not restricted to Europe.

- In Brazil, leading conservative politician and former President Jair Bolsonaro is on trial. His opponents accuse him of trying to plot a coup to stay in power after his 2022 electoral loss.
- In South Korea, the new leftwing government has adopted a series of totalitarian tactics that resemble North Korea and Communist China. Unification Church leader Hak Ja Han is being persecuted by the new government. More than 1,000 South Korean police and prosecutors executed an early morning raid on the 82-year-old woman's home and office. The leftwing government is demanding the names of all church members, so they can be matched up with the members of the Conservative Party. Other religious groups are also facing prosecution by the new government. Despite warnings by President Donald J. Trump, the South Korean government is continuing its attack on religious liberty and threatening to damage our nations' 75-year relationship.
- In Japan, there has been an all-out effort to destroy the conservative, pro-American Abe faction (named after popular former Prime Minister Shinzo Abe who was assassinated). The Japanese government is also seeking to outlaw the Unification Church and potentially other religious groups.
- As Americans, we have seen how aggressively the establishment worked to block candidate and then-President Trump from implementing his bold reform programs during his first term. We now know the CIA, FBI, and President Barack Obama himself orchestrated an effort to cripple President Trump's first term. We have lived through two failed impeachment efforts, two failed assassination attempts, and four different efforts to put President Trump in jail.

This is all part of a worldwide conflict. As elite establishments lose their ability to win fairly, they increasingly resort to abuses of power and devious maneuvers to block popular will from imposing change.

We are living through a crucial test of free speech, democracy, and self-government. This is a real crisis of the cause of freedom.

An article by Victor Davis Hanson titled “Why the Left Opposes Everything Trump Backs – Even When They Know He’s Right” was posted at nypost.com on Aug. 24, 2025. Following are excerpts of the article.

What explains the Democrats’ nihilism?

- One – the prior Biden administration was among the most aimless, corrupt and unpopular in modern history – so the contrast with Trump’s successes is too hard to bear.
 - Two – Democrats so hate Trump the messenger that they seek to destroy his entire message – even when it benefits their own country and the world at large.
 - If Trump conducts peace, they prefer war.
 - If he wages war on crime, they side with the criminal.
 - If he stops illegal immigration, they want more illegal immigrants.
 - Three – they fear they have no alternatives to the Trump record, because his agenda is common sense and supported by a majority of Americans.
 - Four – the left cannot stop Trump’s success.
 - Nothing seems to destroy him.
 - Not the raid on his home.
 - Not 93 lawfare indictments.
 - Not efforts to strike him from state ballots.
 - Not two impeachments.
 - Not two assassination attempts.
- Instead, all that only made him stronger – and thus more hated.

An article by Dana Schulz titled “5 Vegetables That Can Increase Inflammation, Doctor [Janine Bowring] Cautions” was posted at bestoflifeonline.com on Sept. 3, 2025. Following are excerpts of the article.

As Best Life previously explained, foods that have been shown to reduce inflammation are:

- Those high in omega-3s (like salmon, anchovies, chia seeds and walnuts)
- Fruit (especially berries) since they are high in vitamin C and antioxidants.
- Green leafy vegetables
- Spices like turmeric and garlic
- Green tea

Nightshade vegetables can be pro-inflammatory. Nightshade vegetables are those that contain chemical compounds called alkaloids. One such alkaloid is solanine (which acts as a natural pesticide to ward off pests and fungi. In general, solanine is not harmful to humans. However, it can be toxic if consumed in excess amounts. Solanine is found in the following vegetables.

- Potatoes
- Tomatoes
- Bell peppers
- Sugar beets
- Eggplant

An article by Joseph MacKinnon titled “It’s Been a Year Since Kennedy and Trump Joined Forces – Here Are MAHA’s Top 3 Wins” was posted at theblaze.com on Aug. 30, 2025. Following are excerpts of the article.

Since his hotly contested confirmation as Trump’s Health and Human Services secretary in February, Kennedy has worked ardently to deliver on the promise of MAHA. Already, HHS under his tutelage has secured numerous victories on the health front – including the following

- Cancellation of mRNA vaccine development contracts.
- Elimination of Biden-era vaccine-reporting requirement & incentive system for hospitals.
- Termination of thousands of bureaucrats and senior establishmentarians
- Removal of retarding fluoride drug products for children from the market.
- Requirement that Pfizer & Moderna add new safety warnings to their Covid-19 vaccines.
- Removal of Covid from recommended vaccine schedule for healthy pregnant & children.

Although the Trump administration has delivered many MAHA wins, three in particular stand out as particularly consequential.

1. Fresh start at the ACIP (Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices)

Kennedy fired all 17 members of the ACIP in June. The health secretary's principle concern was not the panelists' politics, but rather their cozy relationships with some of the organizations they were tasked with scrutinizing.

2. Nuking gender ideology

Pursuant to President Donald Trump's Executive Order 14168, the HHS has taken a wrecking ball to gender ideology.

3. Axing artificial food coloring

The HHS outlined a plan in April to phase out all petroleum-based synthetic dyes from America's food supply.

Isaiah 55:6-11—"Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. 'For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,' says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it."
