Luke 21:34-36—“But take heed to yourselves, lest your souls be weighed down with self-indulgence, and drunkenness, or the anxieties of this life, and that day come on you suddenly, like a falling trap; for it will come on all dwellers on the face of the whole earth. But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take your stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Glenn Harlan Reynolds titled “ ‘No Kings’ Crowds Don’t Want More Democracy – They Want Less” was posted at nypost.com on Oct. 20, 2025. Following are excerpts of the article.

President Trump’s crime isn’t anything he’s said, or done, or even believed (which, all too often, anti-Trump protesters can’t cogently describe anyway).

It’s that he won, and he represents the other team.

As Batya Ungar-Sargon put it: “The ‘No Kings’ rally isn’t protesting Trump, but rather the agenda the majority of America voted for. The Left isn’t protesting a king, but their fellow Americans. They aren’t standing up for democracy – they are protesting against it.”

This is entirely correct. Trump isn’t a king; he’s a popularly elected president who won in something of a landslide, delivering exactly the policies that he promised the electorate.

- His enforcement of immigration laws and deportation of criminal aliens is very popular.
- His ending of DEI policies is also very popular.
- So is his slashing of federal payrolls, and his cuts to foreign aid.
- Then there are his cuts to federal regulations.
- And his support for law enforcement.

Trump is a “king” (or “dictator” as we are often told) whose actual program seems to involve shrinking the government he heads. That’s not the usual thing for autocrats.

Kings inherit their jobs, presidents are elected for a term.

As Meghan McCain tweeted: “I don’t understand how Trump is a King when he won every single swing state, the electoral college and popular vote in a democratic election.”

Legal scholar Ilya Shapiro responded: “No no he’s a king by dismantling an administrative state that nobody voted for.”

That’s Trump’s real sin – carrying out the will of the voters.

Democrats know their policies are unpopular. That’s why they have to lie about everything from immigration to affirmative action to gun control.

Democrats represent the following.

- Administrative/professional class
- Bureaucrats
- Educators
- Academics
- Media people
- A huge gaggle of useless non-profits and foundation and NGO flunkies.

Their true program is to move more money and power into the hands of these groups – and out of the hands of ordinary Americans (whom they regard with a mixture of fear and contempt).

During the Covid years, the same people who are out marching for “No Kings” supported an endless array of dictatorial measures.

- Lockdowns
- Firing people for not vaccinating
- Arresting people for being outside
- Arresting people for paddleboarding in the ocean without a mask
- Arresting people for holding unlicensed religious services.

These measures were all fine with the laptop class (which now sees in Trump an existential threat to liberty), but to their position and, at least as important, their self-importance.

When Trump first took office in 2017, I noted that much of his opposition came from “gentry liberals” who suffered from status anxiety.

They valued their position at the top of the social order and the respect they got for their expertise.

Trump gave them no such respect, and undermined their positions. (Their “expertise,” as Covid underscored, was always overrated.)

Now it's much worse, of course. Trump 2.0 isn't just belittling them and ignoring their advice and demands: He's cutting off the money.

No sooner did he kill off the U.S. Agency for International Development (which was basically a slush fund for lefty foundations and NGOs), leftist organizations and even media businesses had to shut down for lack of funds.

And that's just the beginning of what Trump has been doing.

He's not just a threat to their self-image now; he's a threat to the whole feedlot.

The anger toward him is also explained by understanding that pretty much the entire post-World War II institutional arrangement was designed to ensure that voters don't get what they want.

The administrative state makes regulations that have the force of law, but that no one gets to vote on.

Important domestic policy decisions are turned over to international organizations that are accountable to not one – even as they scarf up U.S. taxpayer money.

Justice Department attorneys abuse their power to prosecute political opponents of the system while protecting the system's made men (and women).

The No Kings protesters invoked Revolutionary War symbolism in support of their marches, but the true revolution here is that of Donald Trump – who's taking apart unaccountable powers and returning power to the people.

No wonder they hate him.

Leftists Across America just held their third or fourth No Kings protest.

Presumably, Donald Trump is a king – which is ironic because if he were a king or authoritarian, their protests would have been shut down and all those involved would be in jail.

Democrats have embraced protest as a political platform for the simple reason that they have no discernable, affirmative platform otherwise.

Truly, what do Democrats stand for?

- High taxes
- Illegal immigration
- Inner-city crime
- Bad schools
- Race hustling
- DEI
- Men in girls' locker rooms
- Ever-expansive government programs
- international appeasement

Hard to run on these issues in 2026, in 2028 and beyond.

While they clearly can't run on these issues, what they can do is appeal to envy and fear.

That's what the No Kings protests are about – stoking mistrust in our current governmental system in order to set in motion its eventual destruction.

But to what end?.....Communism.

They won't present it as communism. They'll use some focus-group-tested euphemism.

- Central-government populism
- Our democracy
- Free stuff for all – paid for by everyone, but them.
- Affordable housing
- Affordable healthcare
- Affordable transportation
- Affordable groceries
- Think Bernie, AOC, Mamdani

If a plurality of leftists and duped moderates vote for these appeals (as they appear to be prepared to do in New York City), they will most certainly get the authoritarian government that they rail against today.

An article by Arthur Schaper titled “ ‘No Kings’ for Thee, but Not for Me” was posted at townhall.com on Oct. 20, 2025. Following are excerpts of the article.

So, another round of “No Kings” protests swept the nation during the weekend of October 18, 2025. Or did they?

I can't say that I noticed them all that much, and judging from many of the on-the-ground reports, the turnout was lackluster at best. The energy just isn't there anymore, and corporate media (for all their preening and propagandizing) cannot enhance this declining movement.

- The irony of protesting “No Kings” in a country that broke away from a kingdom, a global empire, is not lost on me.
- Of course, the greater irony is that if this country were still ruled by a king, I highly doubt that any “No Kings” protest would be allowed to proliferate across the country.

Let’s not kid ourselves about the nature of power and the progressive left’s true interests. It’s not that they don’t want any kings or supreme rulers. For decades, the liberal progressive movement in the United States was riding a long series of wins – starting with the judicial activism (read, supremacism) of the United States Supreme Court.

- Roe vs. Wade
- Griswold vs. Connecticut
- Obergefell vs. Hodge

Liberals witnessed their broad worldwide agenda come into play with the stroke of many gavels and the long-winded opinions of self-involved justices remaking the United States in their progressive ideal image.

Even justices nominated by Republican justices from the 1950s to the 1980s turned into big government, “living constitution” liberals who enacted sweeping cultural and political change to the Left – without the opinion or recourse for change from the general public.

President Joe Biden ruled as one of the most imperial and imperious presidents of our time. His flurry of executive actions imposed much.

- Vaccine mandates
- Lockdown orders
- Broadened huge influxes of cash into every left-wing interest in academia, media, business and entertainment.

President Barack Obama bragged about his phone and his pen, and that he was not afraid to use either to push his agenda – including broad, corrupt actions in our immigration policy and the forced implementation of radical cultural Marxist ideology in every branch of government. Like FDR and other progressive presidents before him, Obama was not above using the engine of state to inflict retribution on his political enemies, and he even seized the phone records of AP reporters and tried to shut down Fox News!

- The Left loves its kings when they are in power.
- Only when they see political power slipping away do they cry “No Kings! No Kings” like a bunch of crazed hyenas.

- Not just in politics (but in every major institution of the culture) the regressive Left and their hippie Boomer peers have had their say, way, and sway.
- President Trump is the Counterrevolution to all of this – and the majority of the country welcomes his return to normalcy.
- The will of the people, the voice of the voters, terrifies the Left.
- Now there's the irony!
- And they shout “No Kings.”
- Indeed, the power of the American people is slowly returning, and President Trump is implementing these necessary changes.

Hundreds of companies use the software company Benevity to connect with nonprofits, allowing employees to donate their time and money – but Benevity systematically blacklists conservative nonprofits, and those nonprofits are now speaking out.

“We, the undersigned organizations, urge Benevity to immediately end the use of the Southern Poverty Law Center’s ‘Hate Map’ and ‘Hate List’ in determining which nonprofits are eligible for corporate charitable giving and employee matching programs,” read the letter (signed by 12 conservative groups and exclusively provided first to The Daily Signal).

The letter adds: “By relying on these partisan designations, Benevity legitimizes a severely biased blacklist that inspires violence, urges discrimination against mainstream organizations, and undermines the spirit of charitable giving.”

- Benevity

Benevity provides a platform for corporations to manage philanthropic efforts – such as providing a way for employees to donate to non-profits before taxes, matching employee contributions, facilitating employee volunteering, and making corporate grants to non-profits. 1792 Exchange (a non-profit that exposes bias in corporate businesses) has counted 224 of the Fortune 1,000 companies that use Beevity.

The list includes the following (and many more).

- |                                    |            |
|------------------------------------|------------|
| Accenture                          | John Deere |
| Adobe                              | Lowe’s     |
| Alphabet (Google’s parent company) | Macy’s     |
| Amazon                             | McDonald’s |
| American Express                   | Microsoft  |
| Apple                              | Netflix    |
| AT&T                               | Nvidia     |
| Best Buy                           | Paramount  |
| Cigna                              | Salesforce |
| Coca Cola                          | Spotify    |
| Costco                             | UPS        |

- Southern Poverty Law Center – SPLC

The SPLC “hate map” includes the following.
 Alliance Defending Freedom – a Christian law firm that has won cases at Supreme Court.
 Do No Harm – doctors opposing divisive racial ideologies & “gender-affirming care.”
 David Horowitz Freedom Center – monitoring threats of radical Islamist extremism.
 Moms for Liberty – parents demanding involvement in kids’ education.

- Inspiring Violence

The letter notes that the “hate list” Benevity uses to screen non-profits has inspired violence.

The letter also notes that the SPLC added Turning Point USA to its “hate map” earlier this year, shortly before the assassination of Turning Point USA’s founder, Charlie Kirk.

Isaiah 55:6-11—“Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
