Luke 21:34-36—“But take heed to yourselves, lest your souls be weighed down with self-indulgence, and drunkenness, or the anxieties of this life, and that day come on you suddenly, like a falling trap; for it will come on all dwellers on the face of the whole earth. But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take your stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Christopher Jacobs titled “6 Reasons Congress Should Let the Enhanced Obamacare Subsidies Expire” was posted at thefederalist.com on Oct. 30, 2025. Following are excerpts of the article.

1. Nearly half of all Exchange enrollees currently qualify for “free” premiums.
2. CBO and others have found millions of fraudulent enrollees, costing tens of millions of dollars annually.
3. If the enhanced subsidies expire, the federal government will still pay 75-80 percent of enrollees’ premiums on average.
4. Most households will face premium increases of no more than $100 per month if the enhanced subsidies expire.
5. Red states are “most hurt” by enhanced subsidies expiration because federal policies have encouraged fraud in their states.
6. Extending enhanced subsidies would expand taxpayer funding of plans covering procedures many Americans find morally objectionable.

A report by the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform Majority Staff titled “The Biden Autopen Presidency (Decline, Delusion, and Deception in the White House)” was posted at oversight.house.gov on Oct. 28, 2025. Following are excerpts of the report.

- Executive Summary

The Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, led by Chairman James Comer, has investigated the circumstances surrounding President Joe Biden’s diminishing mental and physical capacities and the implications of that decline.

Even more troubling than the president experiencing a decline in mental acuity was President Biden’s inner circle of loyalists attempting to mislead the nation to ignore what people’s eyes plainly showed them.

Throughout President Biden’s term, people increasingly questioned if the slurring of words, mistaking of names, visible disorientation, confusion and dependence on aides for basic direction – all of which the public witnessed live – could indicate anything but the serious cognitive decline of President Biden.

The Committee has investigated whether senior Biden White House officials possibly exercised the authority of the former president or intentionally concealed President Biden’s rapidly worsening mental and physical state.

The Committee has found evidence to indicate they did both.

The Biden Autopen Presidency ranks among the greatest scandals in U.S. history. As President Biden declined, his staff abused the autopen and a lax chain-of-command policy to effect executive actions that lack any documentation of whether they were in fact authorized.

While President Biden became progressively less able to do his job – when every measure should have been taken to document and, if ever questioned, prove that President Biden had made final decisions – White House staff took shortcuts and ad hoc actions to keep the Biden presidency afloat.

The Committee has found that there was, in fact, a cover-up of the president’s cognitive decline and that there is no record demonstrating President Biden himself made all of the executive decisions that were attributed to him.

An article by Robin Bansal titled “My Son Is Not a Firang, We Are Desi: Mira Nair” was posted at hindustantimes.com on May 17, 2013. Following is the article.

She left India when she was 19 and has houses in Uganda, New York and India. But internationally acclaimed filmmaker of Indian origin, Mira Nair says she has kept her son Zohran with husband Mahmood Mamdani, grounded, with his Indian roots intact.

“He is a total desi. Completely. We are not firangs at all. He is very much us. He is not an Uhmerican (American) at all. He was born in Uganda, raised between India and America. He is at home in many places. He thinks of himself as a Ugandan and as an Indian,” Nair told us during her recent visit to the capital.

A junior in college with one more year to go, the 21-year-old is studying Arabic and Politics.

She says: “He is a very chaalu fellow. We speak only only Hindustani at home. He is involved with popular culture, but he is not into movies, as in the doesn’t make them (unlike me).”

Ask her if it has been a deliberate attempt from her to end to cocoon him from the spotlight, and the 55-year-old says: “Yes. We are not filmy people” – adding that her son “often” comes to India. She, however, wouldn’t want him to follow in her footsteps in terms of career.

She said: “No. No. He should do whatever he wants to do. I don’t see it in him to make movies. He is very involved with current affairs, politics, and political issues. I think he can be engaged in the world in some way to make a difference. He is very, very interested in that.”

Despite that, Nair consults him on the films she makes to gather a young audience’s point of view.

She said: “For instance, he brought Kal Penn to my eyes when I cast him as the lead in The Namesake. I didn’t know Kal earlier.”

Nair also reveals that Zohran was equally involved in the casting of her film, The Reluctant Fundamentalist, that hit screens here today. Zohran is also trying to make his mother more active in the online world.

She said: “He is the one who put me on Twitter. I knew about it, but I didn’t use it.”

Isaiah 55:6-11—“Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
